Top 10 Reasons to Study in the Pittsburgh Region

- Many accredited colleges & universities with cross-registration options
- Highly-ranked computer science, medicine, engineering, business, green energy programs
- Great opportunities for internships, practical training & work experience with many multinational & Fortune 500 corporations
- Voted Most Liveable City by Forbes.com and The Economist with metro population of more than 2.5 million people
- One of the safest & most affordable cities in the U.S.A.
- Central location with easy access to other cities such as New York, Philadelphia, Toronto and Washington, D.C.
- Many outdoor activities, arts & culture, concerts & major league sports
- More than 135,000 college students from over 100 countries
- Many English as a Second Language (ESL) programs
- Welcoming programs to help new students connect with the community

For information about studying & living in the Pittsburgh region, come to the Study Pittsburgh website at www.studypittsburgh.org

---

Study Pittsburgh is a program of the GlobalPittsburgh Education Partnership
650 Smithfield Street, Suite 1180
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15222
Phone: 412-392-4513
Email: tbuell@globalpittsburgh.org